

LIGHTING UP VENLO

LAGOTRONICS has completed a massive light and sound project at Venlo city hall in the Netherlands. The 16th century building has undergone a major interior renovation, while outside a “symphony of light, video and animation” has been designed, with the company supplying the LED lighting, beamer and show controls for this.

